EDUCATIONAL.

Proceedings of the Franklin County Teachers' Association.

The Association met at the Frankfort Public School at the usual time, and was called to order by Pres. Hunter; prayer by T. E. Uterback. There was a goodly attendance and much interest manifested on the part of all present. Prof. Lea's lecture on the famous subject, "Notation and Numeration," was excellent and very instructive. The subject was discussed generally. Among those who discussed were Messrs. Hunter, Hulet, and Miss Shipp. Mr. Hulet gave a very interesting as well as instructive lesson on the best method of teaching the alphabet. This subject was also generally discussed and proved very beneficial to all. Those who participated in the discussion were Messrs. Lea, Uterback and Miss Ward.

Although some had come n-n-miles to hear Prof. Pickett on the "Resources of the School Fund," yet they were greatly disappointed as he had forgotten the appointment. All the Association and teachers generally are peculiarly interested in this subject and were very anxious to hear from our honored Superintendent on that theme.

A resolution was passed requesting Sup. Harrod to hold an institute, and a committee appointed to wait upon Mr. Harrod and notify him of the request of the Association. The committee did their work and the request was granted. Several important points were discussed and were very instructive. Mr. Fears asked to be excused from his duty on the programme and promised that he would write what he had to say and publish it in the papers of the county, which was granted. We can see a very noticeable feature in the Association, and that is that there is better attendance and more interest manifested on the part of those who attend. We hope that more will follow. We cordially solicit all friends of education to meet with us at our regular meetings. Remember the second Saturday in September is the next meeting.

FOR SPEAKER OF THE KENTUCKY HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Major, Owens and Spaulding in the Order Named.

Ed. Roundabout:

The contest for the speakership of the next Kentucky House of Representatives begins to wax warm. Mr. Ex-speaker Offutt is a candidate for re-election and is reported to be traveling over the State, visiting the members-elect at their homes, and electioneering with all his might and main for the position. If this be true—and one of his supporters, a Louisville member elect, says it is—I think that fact alone ought to lay him up high and dry 'n the shell. For my part, I do not think that the high and responsible office of Speaker ought to be degraded or at any rate cheapened by such "logrolling" as that. I am for our home member, Col. Major, for that office. No other member-elect, I know of, would or could bring as much pure and unadulterated brain power to the position as he. This being unquestionably true, and he being well known to be one of the finest parliamentarians in the State (and I don't forget John Carlisle either), he certainly ought to be Speaker. Next to him comes the gifted and gallant Owens, of Scott, who, if Major refuses to be a candidate, ought to be the favorite of every man, woman, and child in Franklin county. If he has been spitefully said that "comparisons are odious; that dem-divine, but still not infallible mortal," "Billie" Shaker, gave currency to that fallacy, but in case of competing candidates for office, we are bound to institute comparisons, and everybody in Kentucky knows that Mr. Owens, as speaker, was far superior in every respect to his very "clever," but still quite mediocre successor, Mr. Offutt. After Major and Owens, I think a big majority of the people and member-elect of Franklin and of Central Kentucky, generally, will be for Mr. Ignatius A. Spaulding, of Union county, who is another brainy Kentucky man, and would make one of the best and most impartial speakers our House of Representatives had for a long time.

OLD TIME DEMOCRAT.

Workmen, while, digging in the rubbish in the cellar of the Harris building Monday, found two watches, one gold and the other silver, some jewelry, a lot of silver spoons, and other articles of value, which were stored in a trunk in an upper room and went through the late fire.

Mr. Will O'Donnell, the polite and accommodating young gentleman, who for several years has held the position of salesman at Harris' Arcade, leaves to-morrow afternoon for Louisville, having secured a situation with Messrs. Hess, Meyer & Co., of that city, to seek his fortune, and his many friends wish him abundant success.

Two Very Ugly Twins.

They go hand in hand, and lead their victim a terrible trot down into the valley of the shadow of death. One is neuralgia, the other rheumatism. These generally proceed from disordered blood. Brown's Iron Bitters knocks out these ugly twins by setting the blood aright and invigorating the system. Mr. W. T. Osborne, of Coville, Ala., writes: "Brown's Iron Bitters for rheumatism and neuralgia with the most happy effect. It also cures dyspepsia."

The fourth match of the series between the Spring Hill Gun Club, of this city, and the Lexington Club was shot Tuesday afternoon at the grounds of the former, near this city, and our boys "put it on" the Lexingtons a little the worst they have yet. The targets were 30 Knoxville blackbirds thrown from a screened trap at three different angles, 16 and 18 yards rise. The weather was cloudy and a strong chilly wind was blowing the entire time. Our boys took the lead from the start and gained steadily to the finish. Following is the score:

LEXINGTON.	FRANKFORT.
F. A. Harrison.....	29 R. Morris.....
A. J. Jeffers.....	29 R. Morris.....
T. E. Uterback.....	29 Geo. L. Payne.....
W. C. O'Neil.....	29 J. L. Payne.....
Pierce O. Butler.....	29 Dr. E. E. Hume.....
A. C. Thompson.....	29 W. S. Fife.....
S. Bagge.....	29 John Manning.....
Speed Gooden.....	29 Dr. P. Berry.....
W. R. Ferguson.....	29 T. B. Mason.....
Alex. Jeffers.....	29 Kennor Taylor.....
Total.....	299 Total.....

Each club has now won two matches, but in the total number of birds broken our boys are 18 ahead.

A Reliable Article.

For enterprise, push and a desire to get such goods as will give the trade satisfaction Hughes & Chiles, the Drugists, lead all competition. They sell Dr. Ross's Cough and Lung Syrup, because it's the best medicine on the market, for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Primary Consumption. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Samples free.

Editor Roundabout:

I hear there are saloon-keepers and others that have been fined for violating the law by keeping open their business houses on the Sabbath day. They certainly know by this time, if they did not at the time they got their licenses that, it was specified in said licenses that they were to obey the law.

How a peace officer of Frankfort and Franklin county can try men repeatedly that knowingly violate the law repeatedly without cancelling their licenses is mysterious to me. They are sworn officers of the law and if they in the future have no regard for their oath of office, they will be required to get down and out. This is a free people and one that does not intend to be imposed upon by a lawless set of sab bath breakers. If the law and the country do not suit some people, let them return to the old country, and not undertake to abolish the laws of our fathers, that they lived under and left us. We will not stand or allow such to be done.

Indigestion Cured.

I suffered for more than five years with indigestion, scarcely able to retain the simplest food on my stomach. The burning sensation was almost intolerable, and my whole system was deranged. I was wakeful and could not sleep, and consequently more or less nervous all the time. I declined in flesh, and suffered all the usual depression attendant upon this terrible disease. In a word, I was miserable. At last failing to find relief in anything else, I commenced the use of Svalit's Specific. I began to improve at once. The medicine toned up the stomach, strengthened the digestive organs, and soon all that burning ceased, and I could retain food without difficulty. Now my health is good, and can eat anything in the shape of food, and digest it without the slightest difficulty. I most cheerfully bear this testimony, because there are hundreds suffering as I was, and I am sure they can be as readily relieved. Take the prescribed dose after eating, instead of before.

"Crossed Man in Alabama"

"De crossed man in Alabama lives dar," said the driver as we approached a wayside home, near Selma, Ala., to ask accommodations for the night. At supper, and after it, "mine host" scowled at every one, found fault with every thing earthly, and I was wondering if he would not growl if the heavenly halo didn't fit him, when incidental mention being made of the comet of 1882, he said: "I didn't like its form, its tail should have been fan shaped!"

But, next morning, he appeared half-offended at our offering to pay for his hospitality. My companion, however, made him accept of a present sample from his case of goods. Six weeks later, I drew up at the same house. The planter stepped lightly from the porch, and greeted me cordially. I could scarcely believe that this clear complexion, bright-eyed, unimpaired fellow, and the morose being of a few weeks back, were the same. He inquired after my companion of the former visit and regretted that he was not with me. "Yes," said his wife, "we are both much indebted to him." "How?" I asked, in surprise. "For this wonderful change in my husband. Your friend, when leaving, handed him a bottle of Warner's safe cure. He took it, and two other bottles, and now—" "And now," he broke in, "from an ill-feeling, growling old bear, I am healthy and so cheerful my wife declares she has fallen in love with me again!"

It has made over again a thousand love matches, and keeps sweet the tempers of the family circle everywhere. Copyrighted. Used by permission of American Rural Home. Aug. 22-85.

FRANKFORT, AUGUST 29, 1885.

The farm of the late Col. R. W. Scott, near Jet's Station, this county, was sold on Saturday to Mr. C. E. Hoge and Mr. Mason, of the firm who are the lessees of the convict labor in the Penitentiary, for $65 per acre. There are 378 acres in the tract and the farm is one of the best in the county.

An excursion train of eleven passenger coaches, filled with people from Cincinnati, Covington, Newport and points along the Short-line Road, arrived in this city about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, remained until 7 at night and then returned to Newport. Notwithstanding a baggage car attached to the train was fitted up as a regular bar-room, and liquors of all kinds were dispensed freely on the way over here, the crowd was very orderly and no arrests were made by the police.

The laying of the water-main across the river has at last been finished and the system of water pipes on both sides of the river connected. The pipes were joined together on a raft and after thoroughly testing them nearly the entire line was lowered gradually into position on Sunday. A short distance from the north bank of the river there was a hitch, owing to the trench which had been dredged out in the bottom having become filled up, and it required two or three days to clear it out.

A difficulty occurred at old Christiansburg, Shelby county, on Friday, between Wm. Thomasson and Joe Hawkins, in which the latter was shot and dangerously wounded by the former, a double-barreled shotgun loaded with buckshot being the weapon used. The trouble grew out of trespass by stock, and Hawkins had fired one or two shots at Thomasson before he got a chance to return the fire. Hawkins is a nephew of Capt. E. O. Hawkins, of this county. At last accounts he was still alive but the attending physician did not think he could live. Thomasson had an examining trial and was acquitted on the ground of self-defense.

The many friends of Mrs. Minnie Hoff, nee Roberts, in this county were deeply pained on Friday to hear of her death at the home of her husband in Louisville. She had a long spell of fever last spring, which left her system in a wretched condition, and when a short time since she assumed the cares of maternity, her strength gave way and she sank rapidly until death came to relieve her suffering. She was one of the most beautiful women that ever lived in the Aiton neighborhood, and when about a year ago she left her home for that of her proud young husband, was the perfect picture of health and female loveliness. She left an infant two weeks old.

Mrs. Mary F. Middleton, widow of the late Hon. F. Middleton, for many years editor and publisher of the Shelby News, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. A. H. McClure, in this city, Tuesday evening at six o'clock, aged about seventy-five years. About 15 months ago she was stricken with paralysis and has been confined to the house, and part of the time to the bed, ever since, but was enjoying comparatively good health until the extremely hot weather of the past few weeks set in, when she began sinking slowly, and the immediate family soon saw that the end was not far distant. She had been a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church for many years, was a true Christian and fell asleep in the arms of the blessed Savior. She left one child, Mrs. Albert H. McClure, and a brother, Mr. George Riley, of Shelbyville, to mourn her loss, to whom we tender our warmest sympathy. Her remains were taken to her old home in Shelbyville Thursday morning and interred by the side of her husband in the Cemetery at that place.

About one o'clock Saturday morning the residence of Mr. W. S. Thompson Johnson, in this county, near Graefenburg, was destroyed by fire. There was no one at home at the time but Mr. Johnson's wife and mother and a young lady neighbor, who, having been awakened by the fire, were endeavoring to get the things out of the house when the neighbors began to gather in. A gentleman present told Mrs. Martha Johnson, the mother, that she was too old to be such work, to go and take care of herself, but just then she remembered she had left a sum of money concealed in an upper room and went back into the house to hunt for it. As she did not return Mr. Ed. Wiggs fought his way through the flames in search of her and found her on the stairs, with her clothing all on fire, and carried her out. Her feet, breast and limbs were horribly burned and her hands so very badly that the ends of the fingers dropped off, and she died Saturday from her injuries.

The house was completely destroyed, together with most of the furniture, and in the ashes were found twenty dollars in silver and a roll of charred and blackened paper, which was supposed to have been the remains of about four hundred dollars the old lady is supposed to have had in the house, and which she was endeavoring to save when she was fatally burned. The fire is supposed to have originated from the kitchen stove.

The Franklin Association.

The meeting of the Franklin Association of United Baptists which was held with the Church at Cedar, Owen county, last week, was more largely attended than for several years, fully three thousand people being present each day, and a large amount of business transacted. Mr. George W. Robb, of Woodford county, presided as moderator, and in the absence of Dr. U. V. Williams, of this city, who has been clerk for many years, Col. T. B. Ford, of this city, and Mr. R. J. Shannon, of Shelby county, were appointed to fill his place. All the Churches were represented by quite a number of lay delegates and there were thirteen ministers present. Five sister Associations—Elkhorn, Long Run, Sulphur Fork, Concord, and Owen—were represented by letter and messengers.

The committee on Home Missions reported that during the year there had been added to the Church 130 souls, through the labors of Rev. J. T. Burton, the field worker employed by them within the bounds of the Association, besides several new Sunday-schools organized. There are at present 16 Sunday-schools, with 1,125 scholars.

A collection amounting to $162 was taken up for the benefit of the Orphan Home at Louisville. Frankfort was selected as the next place of meeting, and Rev. G. F. Bagby to preach the introductory sermon, with Rev. J. T. Burton as alternate. On motion of Rev. G. F. Bagby a resolution pledging the Association to do all in its power to promote the cause of temperance was adopted. The Committee on Foreign Missions reported the work being done very encouraging, and urged upon the brethren the necessity for larger contributions to aid in carrying on the work.

Mr. G. W. Robb and Dr. U. V. Williams were re-elected as Moderator and Clerk.

The Odd Fellows have determined to make it the most attractive display that they have ever had. ### Barlow, Wilson & Rankin's Minstrels.

Lovers of minstrelsy assembled in round numbers at the People's Theatre last night to welcome the members of Barlow, Wilson & Rankin's minstrel combination. If hearty demonstrations of approval are worth anything then the members of the visiting company ought to feel proud for there was plenty of it all through the evening. The first part was composed of well-known singers, the leading feature being the favorite minstrel tenor, Mr. Thomas B. Dixon. He was received by a hearty outburst of enthusiasm and was compelled to sing "Sally in our Alley" several times before the audience would allow the performance to proceed. The singing of "There's a Light in the Window," by James S. Adams, and "Angel of My Dreams" by Thomas B. Dixon was pleasantly rendered and well received. In the olio several laughable eccentricities were introduced, concluding with a comical burlesque entitled "Crawled Back" taken all in all it was one of the best minstrel performances seen in this city in years.—New York Herald, Aug. 18, 1885.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Antioch

Tuesday brought us another cold wave.

We have had fine showers of rain which were very welcome.

Who is the legal teacher of the Antioch school, is the question now agitating the minds of the natives.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, Aug. 27, by Rev. T. E. Uterback, of the Christian church, Miss Ardelia Weber and Mr. Charles G. Marshall, all of the county.

When could spend his golden days. He joined in one two loving hearts.

Mr. Henry Spaulding's eldest child, Robble, was very sick last week with diphtheria, and at one time was in a very critical condition. Dr. S. F. Smith, of Frankfort, attended on him and was untiring in his attention, and succeeded, with the aid of a kind Providence, in conquering the disease.

Messrs. T. E. Uterback and T. Hunter have had a very pleasant time the past two weeks at the schools of the county. The teachers of those they visited they found earnestly and zealously engaged in their arduous duties, and the pupils deeply interested in their studies, but there was one fact prominent before them, i. e., the want of interest by parents in some of the districts as shown by the slim attendance. It is their intention to continue the good work for their own instruction and pleasure.

The Franklin County Teacher's Association met Aug. 25th. We were pleased to see an increase in numbers, and that those present took a lively interest in the meeting. It is a noticeable fact that the people are beginning to realize the importance of the Association. Teachers are inquiring if certain teachers attend its meetings, and have called on the President to recommend such teachers only for position as attend regularly. It is the intention of the President at an early date to publish a list of the enrolled members showing those who are regular attendants, so that the public may see what teachers are in earnest in their profession and who are not.

Mrs. Mattie Price, of lock No. 3, arrived on the Hornet Tuesday and is visiting friends on the Point.

Mr. Hansborough and family, late of Spring Hill, are now domiciled in "Pink Cottage," on Polsgrove street.

The loafers and idlers have built a play house on Mrs. Todd's hill and are spending their time to the gratification of our merchants.

The following deed may be of interest to our citizens:

This indenture made this, 2d day of Feb., 1886, between B. Mills, of the county of Franklin, State of Kentucky, of the first part, and L. A. Thomas, of the second part, of the county and State aforesaid, witnesseth, that for and in consideration of the sum of one dollar in hand paid and the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the party of the first part doth bargain and grant to the party of the second part the two following tracts of land for the purposes hereinafter set forth, lying in Franklin county, State of Kentucky, just below the mouth of the Kentucky river opposite the city of Frankfort and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

The first tract beginning at the southwest corner of lot No. 6, in the town of Powellton; thence south-westerly 40 feet to Poynter and Thomas' corner; thence along Poynter and Thomas' line south-easterly to the Kentucky river at low-water mark; thence down the river 40 feet to a stake, corner to Coleman; and thence with his line south-easterly to the south-east corner of lot No. 6, the beginning. The tract of land thus described and conveyed to be kept forever open and free from encumbrance as a passway for said L. A. Thomas, Coleman and all who may be interested therein, nor shall it ever be used for other purposes.

The second tract to begin at the corner of Coleman's estate, corner to L. A. Thomas and Coleman; thence in a westerly direction with Coleman line to the corner of stone fence, corner of Coleman's estate; thence with Thomas' line to the beginning. This tract is for the use and benefit of said Thomas as he may choose to direct, together with all the rights, privileges, and appurtenances thereto belonging.

And the party of the first part doth covenant that he will warrant the property hereby conveyed. To have and to hold the property hereby conveyed to the party of the second part and his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, the party of the first part has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and date first above written.

B. MILLS, [SEAL]

J. J. JAS. G. CROCKETT, clerk of court of the County.

A New Officer Suggested.

Did you ever think of it, Mr. Editor, what a bad effect mis-spelt signs have on the public generation? Yes, and even on the risen generation, as for that matter. Passing through Main street to-day I saw a sign which said in effect, "Sherbert for sale here," and I called the attention of a young society gentleman of culture to the bad spelling "Why," said he, "I thought that was right. Do you spell it?" "According to my authority," I answered, "The word is Sherbert, not Sherbert." "Come to think of it," returned he, "I believe you are right, and yet I'd have occasion to use it in writing to my sweetheart, it would have spelled it just as that semi-civilized sign-painter has it on the board over Pete Sawyer's confectionery, and as she is very particular about such matters, she would have accused me as an ignorant sure. Now, I'll return to the City of Commerce and employ a new officer, whose duty it shall be to go around and have all the mis-spelt signs taken down and replaced by the correct spelling. I think the public has a bad effect on the rising generation, of which I am one, you know."

WONCESTER, JR., [Not Webster, mind you.]

P. S.—By the way, while we are talking about signs in public places, I notice that some one has caused a couple of signboards to be put up on trees in Capitol Square, warning the sovereigns that "No loathing will be allowed on that square"—or words to that effect. Seems to me the authors of that sign-board have undertaken a huge contract if they expect to exterminate all the loathing done on that square. Moreover, I think it is pretty right when our country neighbors, old and young, male and female, come to town these hot summer days that they should go and get there, "loaf" to their heart's content on the grass of that very square, after they get through with their shopping. Besides, they have as much right to loaf on that square, and to say what shall or shall not be done with it as the parties who put up those signs. The wonder to me that the gallant and chivalrous "boys" of the city did not make targets of those signboards within a few hours after they were put up. Besides, what is the use in having a lovely, grass-covered square like that, unless the boys and girls, the old men, women and children, are all permitted to go in and enjoy it when they please, in the summer season.

"W. J."

A Competent and Courteous Public Official.

Governor J. Proctor Knott, Mayor E. H. Taylor, Jr., Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge, Senator J. C. Blackburn, Colonel J. Snyder Johnson, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, and the citizens of Frankfort, without regard to party lines, have signed letters and papers addressed to Hon. J. Proctor Knott, Secretary of the Treasury, Washington, D. C., strongly advising and requesting that Captain David A. Murphy, of Danville, be retained as Superintendent of the Public Building in this city, on the ground that "he has proven himself to be a competent and courteous public official," and that the building can be completed under his superintendence in four months. Democrats and Republicans are practically unanimous for Captain Murphy's retention until the final completion of the Frankfort building.

In six months' time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels as well as her life to it. Free Trial Bottles at J. W.
